4. WSECU’s Discretionary Courtesy Pay Policy
This agreement is the contract of deposit which covers yours and our rights and responsibilities concerning business membership and account(s) offered to you. In this agreement, the words “you” and “yours” mean those who sign the Business Account Card or Business Account Authorization Card (“Account Card”). The words “we,” “us,” and “our” mean WSECU (“Credit Union”). The word “account” means any one or more share or deposit accounts you have with the Credit Union. The term “account balance” refers to the full amount of all deposits/funds in an account, less payments that have actually been posted or processed. The term “available balance” is your account balance minus funds for (i) electronic or debit transactions that we have authorized (and therefore are obligated to pay) but not yet settled to your account and (ii) holds or other restrictions on deposited funds that have not yet cleared. The term “available funds” means the amount of your available balance.

The classification and form of ownership of your accounts are designated on your Business Account Card. By signing the Business Account Card that is a part of the agreement, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this agreement, including the Funds Availability Policy, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, the Business Rate and Fee Schedule accompanying this agreement, any account receipt, the Credit Union’s Bylaws and policies, and any amendments which collectively govern your business membership and accounts. You agree that additional accounts and services you request in the future will be governed by this agreement as amended from time to time.

Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account with our Credit Union. We will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents.

I. MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNTS

1. Membership Eligibility. To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union’s field of membership and must purchase and maintain at least one share (the Membership Share Account) as required by the Credit Union’s Bylaws. You authorize us to check financial information data and employment history about you by any means allowed by law, including obtaining a credit report or credit score from any consumer reporting agency to verify your eligibility for any accounts and services we offer or you request.

WSECU reserves the right to refuse opening any account where we perceive the account name may be offensive or contain sexually explicit or other inappropriate language or connotations. In addition, if any share or loan name is also perceived in this manner, we will change it or you request.

I authorize the Credit Union to obtain credit reports about me from consumer reporting agencies and to retain information from the reports to determine my eligibility for accounts and services the credit union may offer.

2. Individual Business Accounts. An individual business account is an account owned by one depositor including any individual, or sole proprietor qualified for Credit Union membership. If the account is an individual business account, the interest of a deceased individual owner will pass, subject to applicable law to the decedent’s estate. You understand that unless you waive your rights, certain account designations may be invalid on the Credit Union’s receipt of notice of marriage dissolution or a testamentary disposition, as required by applicable law. We may require any claimant to the account to produce certain documents before releasing the funds in the account. The Credit Union may continue to honor all transfers, withdrawals, deposits and other transactions on the account until the Credit Union learns of an account owner’s death. Once the Credit Union learns of an account owner’s death, the Credit Union may pay checks or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased member for a period of ten (10) days unless the Credit Union receives instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks or other items. You agree that the Credit Union can require that anyone who claims funds in the account after your death to indemnify the Credit Union for any losses resulting from honoring that claim.

3. Accounts of Businesses and Organizations. You must designate on the Business Account Card who is authorized to act on behalf of the member/account owner as an authorized signer or business agent. You must also complete the Certification of Beneficial Ownership form associated with the Business Account Card. The Certification of Beneficial Ownership requires the identification of individuals who own, either directly or indirectly, twenty-five (25) percent or more of the legal entity business for the ownership certification and identity of the individual with significant managerial control over the legal entity business for the control certification. You agree to notify the Credit Union of any change in authority. The Credit Union may rely on the written authorization until such time as the Credit Union is informed of changes in writing and has had a reasonable time to act upon such notice. The Credit Union may require you to update your Certification of Beneficial Ownership from time to time. You understand that failure to do so, including failure to respond to a request for updated Beneficial Owner information could result in account restrictions until the information is provided and/or could result in account closure.

The Credit Union may require that third-party checks payable to a club or association may not be cashed, but must be deposited to the account. The Credit Union shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties arising from a transaction by any agent of the account owner, unless the Credit Union has actual notice of any wrongdoing. WSECU does not offer business accounts to any type of money service/transfer business, such as, but not limited to: Payday lending, casinos, wire transfer services and/or Quick Cash transfer services. In addition, WSECU does not support business accounts which engage in Internet gambling activities or are opened with the purpose of supporting medical nursery services or are a state licensed Marijuana Related Business.

4. Authorized Parties

a. Authorized Parties. The persons named on the Business Account Card as owners are vested with full authority to open and close accounts on behalf of the business, add and remove authorized signers on behalf of the business and to transact any business of any nature on such accounts. By accepting this account agreement as evidenced by the ongoing use of the account and signing the Business Account Card, all business owners agree that only (1) one signature is required to approve any changes made to Authorized Signers.

b. Authorized Signers. Authorized signers are any persons authorized to receive account information, if applicable, are authorized to receive from the Credit Union either orally or in writing, any information related to the account. Those persons are also authorized to withdraw funds or issue checks/drafts against the account. Deposits may be accepted by authorized signers.

The Credit Union is directed to accept and pay without further inquiry any item, signed by an authorized signer, drawn against any of the business’s accounts. Unless otherwise indicated, any one authorized signer is expressly authorized to endorse all items payable to or owned by the Business for deposit with or collection by the Credit Union and to perform any other transaction permitted under the Agreement.

The authority given to the authorized parties named on the Business Account Card shall remain in full force until written notice of revocation.
5. Deposit Requirements.

d. Power of Attorney. WSECU will not allow Powers of Attorney to be used on Business Accounts.

6. Account Access

a. Authorized Signature. In order to access any account, the Credit Union must have an authorized signature of yours on a Business Account Card. The Credit Union is authorized to recognize your signature, but will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if it believes in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, the Credit Union may honor any draft that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. If you give your account number to a third person, you authorize us to honor transactions initiated by the third person even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction, and you are liable for any subsequent transactions which may be processed by the third person.

b. Access Options. You may make withdrawals or transfers from your account in any manner which is permitted by the Credit Union (e.g., check, automated teller machines (ATMs), debit card, in person, by mail, automatic transfer, online or telephone). If the Credit Union accepts any draft that is not drawn on a form provided by the Credit Union, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay or error.

c. ACH and Wire Transfers. If offered, you may initiate or receive credits or debits to your account via wire transfer or ACH transfer. You agree that if you receive funds by wire or ACH transfer, the Credit Union is not required to notify you at the time the funds are received. Instead, the transfer will be shown on your periodic statement. The Credit Union may provisionally credit your account for an ACH transfer before it receives final settlement for the transfer. You agree that if the Credit Union does not receive final settlement for a transfer, it may reverse the provisional credit to your account, or you will refund the amount to the Credit Union. When you initiate a wire transfer, you must identify the recipient and any financial institution by name and by account or identifying number. The Credit Union and other institutions may rely on the account or other identifying number you give as the proper identification number, even if it identifies a different party or institution. Wire transfers are governed by Federal Reserve Regulation J if the transfer is cleared through the Federal Reserve. ACH transactions are governed by the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association.

d. Credit Union Examination. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer, amount of the item, and any magnetic encoded information. You agree the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.

e. Electronic Check Transactions

(1) Electronic Checks. If you authorize a merchant to electronically debit your checking account using the routing, account and serial number of your check to initiate the transfer, whether the check is blank, partially or fully completed and signed, such authorization is an electronic check conversion. An electronic check conversion is an electronic funds transfer (EFT) subject to the terms of Section III, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion from your checking account just the same as a regular written check.

(2) Electronic Re-presented Checks. If you write a check on a personal account that we return unpaid because of insufficient or uncollected funds, payee or any subsequent holder of the check may re-present the check to us through an electronic instruction (Electronic Re-presented Check) to charge your account for the amount of the check. If we receive an electronic re-presented check, we will pay or return the electronic re-presented check as if the original paper check was presented to us. Any collection fees you authorize the merchant to debit from your account is an electronic funds transfer subject to the terms of Section III, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. If you want to reverse an electronic re-presented check, you must give us an affidavit within fifteen (15) days after we send or make available to you the periodic statement that reflects payment of that electronic re-presented check. In your affidavit, you must declare and swear under oath that the electronic re-presented check was ineligible or unauthorized. If we receive a proper notice or affidavit from you within the 15-day period, we will re-credit your account with the amount of the charge. If you wish to stop payment of any electronic re-presented check, you must follow the procedures contained in this Agreement for stopping payment of checks, not the procedures for stopping payment on electronic loan or bill payments. If you ask us to request the depositor's bank to send us the original paper check or a copy of the paper check and we provide it to you, you agree that you will not seek to have your account re-credited due to a prior stop payment order or if the item is otherwise ineligible for collection.

7. Account Rates and Fees. The Credit Union's payment of dividends on any account is subject to the account rates and fees, earnings, payment and balance requirements as set forth on the Business Rate and Fee Schedule and each Share Certificate receipt, which are incorporated herein by this reference. You agree the Credit Union may impose fees and charges for the deposit account services provided by the Credit Union. You agree the Credit Union may change the Business Rate and Fee Schedule from time to time and you will be notified of such changes as required by law.

8. Account Balance vs. Available Balance. Account balance refers to the full amount of all deposits/funds in an account, less payments that have actually been posted or processed. Available balance is your account balance minus funds for a. electronic or debit transactions that we have authorized (and therefore are obligated to pay) but not yet settled to your account and b. holds or other restrictions on deposited funds that have not yet cleared. Available funds means the amount of your available balance.

9. Transaction Limitations

a. Withdrawal Restrictions. The Credit Union will permit a withdrawal only if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal or have an established overdraft services plan, such as Overdraft Protection or Courtesy Pay. Drafts or other transfer or payment orders which are drawn against insufficient available funds will be subject to a service charge, as set forth in the Business Rate and Fee Schedule. If there are sufficient available funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may allow those withdrawals for which there are sufficient available funds in any order at the Credit Union's discretion.

The Credit Union may also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases; for example, any dispute between the owners about the account (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to the Credit Union; any required documentation has not been presented; or failure to repay a Credit Union loan on time. You will be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. The Credit Union reserves the right to require members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any share account of up to ninety (90) days and any other deposit account (except checking accounts) of up to sixty (60) days, as required by law, before such withdrawal.

b. Overdraft Protection Plan. Unless you notify us, we will provide an overdraft protection plan for you. We will honor transactions, such as checks, electronic withdrawals, ATM and POS withdrawals drawn on insufficient available funds in any checking account by transferring the necessary funds from a business deposit account, business credit card loan or other business loan account of yours, if applicable, to your share draft account. Unless otherwise directed, we will transfer funds to your overdrawn account, first from your business loan account, then from your business credit card account and then from your share 01 business savings account, as applicable. Overdraft transfers will be in increments of $100.00 to cover the overdraft when transferred from a savings account. Overdraft transfers will be in increments of $25.00 from a loan or credit card account. The fee for overdraft transfers is set forth in the Business Rate and Fee Schedule. Transfers from a business deposit account will be governed by this Agreement. Transfers from a business credit card loan or other loan account will be governed by the
c. Discretionary Courtesy Pay Service. If you satisfy the eligibility requirements set forth in our Discretionary Courtesy Pay Policy, which is posted on our website, we will provide our Discretionary Courtesy Pay Service for your checking account transactions. Our Discretionary Courtesy Pay Service is added to your new checking account if you meet the eligibility requirements and automatically includes authorization and payment of overdrafts for checks and other transactions made using your checking account number, as well as automatic bill payments. In addition, you have the option to choose to have us pay ATM and every day debit card transactions. This option requires you to affirmatively opt-in to the payment of these items that exceed the available funds in your account. If you do not affirmatively opt-in, these items will not be authorized at the time of the transaction if there are not sufficient available funds in your account to cover them. By utilizing our Discretionary Courtesy Pay Service, we will pay items that would overdraft your account up to your established Courtesy Pay limit. (If you have an established overdraft protection plan, the Discretionary Courtesy Pay Service will only apply after all available funds in the overdraft protection service(s) have been exhausted.) Your account will be assessed the Credit Union’s usual Courtesy Pay fee for each item paid under this service. WSECU may impose additional eligibility requirements at any time and may terminate the service in its sole discretion even if you continue to satisfy the minimum eligibility requirements. The Credit Union will notify you at the time of termination if it terminates the service. If you have opted-in to the payment of ATM and every day debit card transactions, you have the right to revoke your consent at any time. If at any time, you wish to change your overdraft choice, please contact the Credit Union.

11. Post-dated and Stake-dated Items. You authorize us to accept and pay any check, even if the check is presented for payment before its date, unless you notify the Credit Union of the postdating. Your notice will be effective only if the Credit Union receives the notice in time for the Credit Union to notify its employees and reasonably act upon the notice, and you accurately describe the check, including the number, date and amount. You understand that the exact information is necessary for the Credit Union’s computer to identify the check. If you give the Credit Union an incorrect, incomplete or untimely notice, the Credit Union will not be responsible for paying the item before the date stated and the Credit Union may charge your account as of the date the Credit Union pays the item. You may make an oral notice which will lapse within fourteen (14) days unless continued in writing within that time. A written notice will be effective for six (6) months. A written notice may be renewed in writing from time to time. You also agree not to deposit checks, drafts or other items before they are properly payable. The Credit Union is under no obligation to you to pay a check or draft drawn on your account which is presented more than six (6) months after its date.

12. Stop Payment Orders
a. Stop Payment Request. You may ask the Credit Union to stop payment on any check drawn upon or ACH debit scheduled from your checking account. You may request a stop payment by telephone, by mail, or in person. For checks, the stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time to act upon the order. For ACH debits, the stop payment order must be received at least three (3) banking days before the scheduled date of the transfer. You must state the number of the account, the date and the exact amount of the check or ACH and the number of the check or originator of the ACH debit. If you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment order is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, the Credit Union will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item. If we re-credit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check to the Credit Union, and to assist the Credit Union in legal action taken against the person.

b. Duration of Order. You may make an oral stop payment order which will lapse within fourteen (14) calendar days unless continued in writing within that time. A written stop payment order will be effective for six (6) months. A written stop payment order may be renewed in writing from time to time. The Credit Union is not obligated to notify you when a stop payment order expires. You may be charged a fee for each stop payment request.

13. Lost Items. The Credit Union, in receiving items from you for withdrawal or deposit, acts only as your agent and reserves the right to reverse the credit for any deposited items or to charge your account for the items should they become lost in the collection process.

14. Credit Union’s Liability for Errors. The Credit Union will not be liable to you for damages resulting from transaction on an account unless the Credit Union has not acted in good faith or exercised ordinary care. Except in the case of the exercise of bad faith or the wrongful dishonor of an item, the Credit Union’s liability is limited to the amount of the item less an amount that could have been realized by the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union will not be liable if: (a) through no fault of the Credit Union, your account does not contain sufficient available funds to make the transaction; (b) circumstances beyond the Credit Union’s control prevents the transaction; (c) your loss is caused by your negligence or the negligence of another financial institution; or (d) the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim. The Credit Union will not be liable for consequential damages except liability for wrongful dishonor. The Credit Union’s actions will constitute the exercise of ordinary care if such actions or non-actions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules and general banking practices followed in the area serviced by the Credit Union. You grant the Credit Union the right in making payments of deposited funds to rely exclusively on the form of the account and the terms of this Business Account Agreement. Any conflict between oral representations by you or Credit Union employees and any written form will be resolved by reference to this Agreement and applicable written form.

15. Credit Union Lien and Security Interest. To the extent you owe the Credit Union money as a borrower, guarantor, endorser or otherwise, the Credit Union has a lien on any or all of the funds in any account in which you have an ownership interest at the Credit Union. The Credit Union may apply these funds in any order to pay off your indebtedness. If the Credit Union chooses not to enforce its lien, the Credit Union does not waive its right to enforce the lien at a later time. In addition, you grant the Credit Union a consensual security interest in your accounts and agree the Credit Union may use the funds from your accounts to pay any debt or amount owed the Credit Union, except obligations secured by your dwelling, unless prohibited by applicable law. All accounts are non-assignable and non-transferable to third parties.

16. Legal Process. If any legal action, such as a levy, garnishment, or attachment, is brought against your account, the Credit Union may refuse to pay out any money from your account until the dispute is resolved. If the Credit Union incurs any expenses or attorney fees in responding to legal process, such expenses may be charged against your account without prior notice to you, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to the Credit Union’s lien and security interest.

17. Account Information. Upon your request, the Credit Union will inform you of the name and address of each credit reporting agency from which the Credit Union obtains a credit report in connection with your account. The Credit Union agrees not to disclose information to third parties about your account regarding any transaction or balances except when: (1) it is necessary to complete the transaction; (2) the third party seeks to verify the existence or condition of your account in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act or other applicable laws and regulations; (3) such disclosure is in compliance with the law, government agencies, or court orders; or (4) you give us your written permission.

18. Our Communications with You. You consent, agree and authorize us to contact you at any number or e-mail address you have provided to us if we need to contact you to service your account, promote our products and services, and collect amounts you owe to us. We may contact you by landline, mobile or cellular telephone in any way, such as calling, texting, or e-mail using an automated dialer or using pre-recorded messages on a mobile, wireless, or similar device. You agree that we may monitor or record any calls between you and us.

19. Notices

a. Name or Address Changes. It is your responsibility to notify the Credit Union upon a change of address or change of name. The Credit Union is required to attempt to communicate with you only at the most recent address you have provided to the Credit Union. The Credit Union may accept oral notices of a change in address and may require any other notice from you to the Credit Union be provided in writing to a branch manager or officer of the Credit Union. If the Credit Union attempts to locate you, the Credit Union may impose a service fee as set forth in the Business Rate and Fee Schedule.

b. Notice of Amendments. Except as otherwise prohibited by applicable law, the terms of this Agreement are subject to change at any time. The Credit Union will notify you of any changes in account terms, rates or fees as required by law. Changes in account ownership such as adding or removing a joint account owner or changes in authorized signers must be evidenced by signing the Credit Union’s forms that may include, but are not limited to: a new signature card, change in ownership form, etc. which upon execution will be incorporated herein by this reference. In addition, for corporations or limited liability companies, the Credit Union also requires approved and signed board meeting minutes indicating changes in authorized signers. The Credit Union reserves the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect the Credit Union’s right to enforce any right in the future. If you have elected to receive electronic communication from us, we will notify you electronically as permitted by applicable law.

c. Effect of Notice. Any written notice you give to the Credit Union is effective when it is actually received by the Credit Union. Any written notice the Credit Union gives to you is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your statement mailing address. Notice to any one account owner is considered notice to all owners of the account. You may use e-mail at wsecu.org to send messages to us. E-mail may not, however, be used to initiate transactions on your account. The Credit Union may not immediately receive e-mail communications that you send, and the Credit Union will not take action based on e-mail requests until the Credit Union actually receives your message and has a reasonable opportunity to act.

d. Notice of Negative Information. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

20. Statements

a. Contents. You will receive a periodic statement of all transactions and activity on your account during the statement period. If a periodic statement is provided, you agree that only one statement is necessary for a multiple party account. For checking accounts, you understand that when paid, your original check becomes property of the Credit Union and may not be returned to you. Copies will be retained by the Credit Union or a payable through financial institution and made available upon your request. You understand statements and checks are made available to you on the date the statement is mailed to you. You agree to keep a copy of your original check in order to verify its validity. If you request us to provide you with an original check or sufficient copy, you agree that we may provide an electronic image of the original check or sufficient copy if you have agreed to receive account information or statements electronically.

b. Electronic Statements (e-statements). If your statement is provided electronically, statements will be: (1) e-mailed to you as an attachment; or (2) you will be sent a notice via e-mail that will direct you to a site we maintain or cause to be maintained where you may access, review, print and otherwise copy/download your periodic statements using procedures we authorize. E-mails from us will be sent to the electronic mail address provided by the account owner.

c. Examination. You are responsible for examining each statement and reporting any irregularities to the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any forged, altered or unauthorized item drawn on your account if: (1) you fail to notify the Credit Union within thirty (30) days of the mailing date of the earliest statement and availability of checks containing any forgery, alteration or unauthorized signature on the item; or (2) if any items are forged or altered in a manner not detectable by a reasonable person including the unauthorized use of a facsimile signature machine.

d. Notice to Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union’s retention of drafts does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements and draft copies or the time limit for notifying the Credit Union of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes and the Credit Union will not be liable for any payment made or charge to your account unless you notify the Credit Union in writing within the above time limit after the statement and checks are made available to you.

21. Inactive and Abandoned Accounts. If you have an account and have not made a withdrawal from, deposit to, or transfer involving your account for more than one (1) year and the Credit Union has been unable to contact you by regular mail during that period, the Credit Union may classify your account as an inactive account and may charge an inactive account service fee as allowed by applicable law as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. Thereafter, dividends will be paid on the account unless the balance falls below any minimum balance requirement. Accounts will continue to incur any applicable monthly maintenance fee until closed by the member. You authorize us to transfer funds from an available account of yours to cover the monthly maintenance fee, if necessary. The Credit Union will notify you at your last known address prior to imposing any fee as required by law. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the account and the Credit Union has had no other contact with you for three (3) years as required by the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act, the account will be presumed to be abandoned. Funds in abandoned accounts will be remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, the Credit Union has no further liability to you for such funds, and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency.

22. Account Restrictions. The Credit Union may restrict services on your account at any time without notice to you if such restrictions are in the best interest of the Credit Union or to protect you from loss.

23. Termination of Account. The Credit Union may terminate your account at any time without notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if: (1) there is a change in owners or authorized signers; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the funds in the account; (4) any account checks are lost or stolen; (5) if there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft protection plan; (6) if there has been misrepresentation or other abuse of your account(s); (7) if we have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of any Card or PIN issued to you; or (8) we reasonably deem it necessary in order to prevent a loss to the Credit Union. You may terminate your account at any time by notifying the Credit Union by oral direction or in writing. The Credit Union is not responsible for payment of any check, withdrawal, or other item once your account is terminated; however, if the Credit Union pays a check after termination, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for payment.

24. Termination of Membership. You may terminate your membership at the Credit Union after giving written notice of your intent to withdraw from membership. The Credit Union may terminate your membership and expel you for cause as governed by the Credit Union’s Bylaws. The Credit Union will notify persons of their expulsion and the reasons on which it is based.

25. Special Account Instructions. The Credit Union does not give legal advice and we cannot counsel you as to how account arrangement most appropriately meets the requirements of your business or organization. You and any authorized party agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any claim or liability asserted against the Credit Union as a result of the disposition of funds in reliance on this Agreement, the Account Card and any account designations you make. If you ask the Credit Union to follow instructions that the Credit Union believes might expose it to claims, suits, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, the Credit Union may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to indemnify the Credit Union. Any item presented with a full payment legend must be presented in person to a Credit Union officer; otherwise, payment is accepted with full reservation of rights. Account changes requested by you or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be evidenced by a signed Business Account Card and accepted by the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not recognize the authority of someone to whom you have given power of attorney without written authorization and a copy of the Power of Attorney. You understand that the Credit Union may choose to retain electronic or imaged copies of any original documents and you agree that an electronic or imaged copy is valid as an original document.

26. Indemnity. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any loss or damage, including attorney fees arising from the Credit Union’s actions or reliance upon your account and authorization instructions, including the transactions conducted by or instructions provided by authorized persons on your account, whether such authority is evidenced in writing or provided by you verbally.

27. Severability. In the event that any paragraph of this Agreement or any portion thereof is held by a court to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the other paragraphs and portions of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect.

28. Enforcement. You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services, including any transaction made by any authorized party to the account. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss or expense from your account without prior notice to you. If you are in breach of this Agreement, or any other loan or service agreement with the Credit Union, or we suspect fraudulent activity on your account, the Credit Union may, without prior notice, restrict access to your accounts or suspend your electronic services or access devices, including ATM or debit cards, and online banking or mobile deposit services. In the event either party brings legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable.

29. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the State of Washington, and local clearing house rules, as amended from time-to-time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court of the county in which the Credit Union is located.

II. FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

1. General Policy. For savings accounts, we reserve the right to place reasonable holds on deposits to the extent permitted by law. For checking accounts, our policy is to make your deposits available on the first business day that we receive your deposit funds, subject to the following terms and conditions. Electronic direct deposit funds will be available on the day when we receive the deposit. Once they are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written, electronic withdrawals, ATM and POS withdrawals. For determining when your deposits are available, every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before 5:30 p.m. at a branch office or noon at Credit Union ATMs on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after 5:30 p.m. at a branch office or noon at Credit Union ATMs, or on a day we are not open, we will consider the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

2. Reservation of Right to Hold. In some cases, we will not make all of your deposits by check available on the first business day that we receive your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, it may not be available until the second business day after the date of your deposit. However, the first $225.00 of funds from your total day’s deposit will be available on the first business day. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit.

3. Holds on Other Funds. If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. These funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If we accept for deposit a check drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described above for the type of check that you deposited.

4. When Longer Delays May Apply. We may delay your ability to withdraw funds deposited by check into your account an additional number of days for these reasons:
   • We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
   • Your check deposit totals more than $5,525.00 on any one day.
   • You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
   • You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six (6) months.
• There is an emergency, such as war, failure of communications or computer equipment or an emergency beyond the control of the credit union.

• During the first thirty (30) days of membership or a new checking account. (A new checking account is defined as a checking account opened by a member(s) without an existing checking account.)

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available.

5. Special Rules for New Accounts. If you are a new member or if you open a new checking account, as defined above, the following special rules may apply during the first thirty (30) days your account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits, deposits of cash, wire transfers, cashier’s, certified, teller’s, travelers, and federal, state and local government checks to your account will be available on the date we receive the deposit, if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

6. Deposits at Automated Teller Machines (ATMs). Funds from any deposits made at an automated teller machine (ATM) we do not own or operate may be subject to hold until five (5) business days after the day of your deposit. Credit Union ATMs are identified as our machines and are located at various locations.

7. Substitute Checks and Your Rights. To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with “substitute checks.” These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original checks. The front of the substitute check states: “This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check.” You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some of the checks that you receive back from us, such as returned deposit items, may be substitute checks. When you receive a substitute check from us, it will be accompanied by a notice describing your rights.

III. ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS

Electronic Fund Transfers (EFTs) are payments to or withdrawals from your account which are initiated electronically. These types of transactions are sometimes called “paperless” transactions because they do not use checks or other paper instruments.

By signing the Business Account Card or using your business debit card, Telephone Banking, Online Banking or by initiating electronic deposits or withdrawals to your account, you agree to the following terms governing your rights and responsibilities, and ours, concerning the electronic funds transfer services, as applicable. Terms and conditions set forth elsewhere in this Agreement shall also apply to your electronic funds transfer service. Electronic funds transfers (EFTs) are electronically initiated transfers of money through direct deposits, automated teller machines (ATM), online transactions (Online and Mobile Banking) and audio response (Telephone Banking) transactions involving your deposit accounts at the Credit Union.

1. Services

a. ATMs. You may use your card and Personal Identification Number (PIN) in ATMs of the Credit Union, point of sale terminals, and such other machines or facilities as the Credit Union may designate. At the present time, you may use your card to:

• Make deposits to your savings or checking accounts.
• Withdraw cash from your savings and checking accounts.
• Transfer funds between your savings and checking accounts.
• Obtain balance information for your savings and checking accounts.
• Pay for purchases from merchants who have agreed to receive the card at POS (Point of Sale) terminals.

b. Business Debit Card. You may use your business debit card to purchase goods and services anywhere Visa® is accepted. Funds to cover your business debit card purchases will be deducted from your checking account. If the available balance in your account is not sufficient to pay the transaction amount, the Credit Union may treat the transaction as an overdraft request pursuant to the overdraft services plan on your account or may terminate all services under this Agreement.

c. Direct Deposit. Upon instruction, the Credit Union will accept direct deposits to your account.

d. Electronic Check Transactions. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your checking account using information from your check to: (i) pay for purchases; or (ii) pay bills. With that action, you then authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion transaction and re-presented check fee debit transactions you authorize (electronic check transactions). You agree that your authorization for an electronic check transaction occurs when you initiate such a transaction after receiving any notice regarding the merchant’s right to process the transaction, including any written sign provided by the merchant at the time of your transaction. All terms governing electronic funds transfer services will apply to electronic check transactions. You remain responsible for notifying us of any unauthorized electronic check transaction shown on your statement.

e. Telephone Banking. If we approve the Telephone Banking telephone access service for your accounts, a separate four to six (4-6) digit personal identification number (PIN) will be assigned to you. You must use your PIN along with your account number to access your accounts via telephone.

At the present time you may use the Telephone Banking service to:

• Obtain balance, deposit, withdrawal, dividend, loan payoff and due date information on your accounts at the Credit Union.
• Transfer funds among your savings and checking accounts.
• Withdraw funds from your savings and loan accounts by check, made payable to you and mailed to you at your mailing address.
• Make business loan payments or business credit card payments from your business savings or checking account to a WSEC business loan or credit card loan account of yours.
• Such other transactions as offered and permitted in the future.

f. Online Banking. By registering for Online Banking and optional services available through Online Banking, you agree to the terms of the Business Online Banking Agreement and optional service addenda, provided to you through the enrollment process. Upon approval, you may use your computer or mobile access device to access your accounts. You must use your username and password to access your accounts. The online banking service is accessible seven (7) days a week, twenty-four (24) hours a day. You will need access to a computer, connection to the Internet and a web browser. The web address for Online Banking is wsecu.org. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of your computer or mobile access device. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving any Internet connection or your computer. At the present time, you may use the online banking service to:

• Transfer funds between your savings, checking, loan and loan card accounts.
• Transfer funds between your account and another members account with WSECU.
• Transfer funds between your WSECU savings and checking accounts and your accounts with another financial institution.
• Review account balance, transaction history and tax information for your business savings, business checking, and business loan accounts.
CARLEFIELD CREDIT UNION

May 1, 2012

Dear Member,

This letter is to advise you of the four new services available to you through the Credit Union's online banking. These services are designed to enhance your ability to manage your accounts remotely. Each service is subject to terms and conditions that are outlined below.

1. Deposits. You may make deposits at designated ATMs. Because of the servicing schedule and processing time required in ATM operations, there may be a delay between the time a deposit (either cash or check) is made and when it will be available for withdrawal. Deposits are subject to verification by the Credit Union. The first $500.00 of an ATM deposit is available immediately; the remainder of the deposit is available one business day after the deposit. On an exception basis, longer holds may apply. If you are a new member, special rules may apply to your account during the first 30 days, including but not limited to restrictions on ATM deposits.

2. Line of Credit Advances. The amount of line of credit advances you may make is limited to your daily ATM withdrawal limit, POS limit and available credit. Line of credit advances are governed by your previously executed Small Business Credit Card Loan Agreement and Disclosures.

3. Purchase Limitations. There is no limit on the number of purchase transactions you may make during a statement period. No purchase may exceed the available funds in your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient available funds, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds. Because of the servicing schedule there may be a limited occasion when the Credit Union computers are down and may limit you $1,000.00 per day. The Credit Union will place a hold on the funds in your account for your purchase authorizations. Hold will be for two (2) days from the date of purchase to allow for settlement or will be released when the transaction posts to your account, whichever comes first. These holds will reduce the amount of available balance in your account, which could result in the payment of subsequent items pursuant to the overdraft services plan you have.

4. Bill Pay Limitations. You may authorize new payment instructions or edit previously authorized payment instructions for payments that are either variable (e.g., payments on merchant accounts that vary in amount) or fixed (e.g., fixed mortgage payments). When you transmit a payment instruction to us, you authorize us to transfer funds from your checking account to fulfill the payment transaction. The Credit Union will not process any payment transaction if we know the required transaction information is incomplete. In any event, the Credit Union will not be liable for any transaction that contains incorrect information that the Credit Union was not responsible for entering or knowing. If there are insufficient available funds in your account to cover the payment transaction, we may refuse to make the payment and/or transfer funds from any overdraft protection account you have established.

Sincerely,

or overdraft your account and charge a fee pursuant to the overdraft services plan on your account as set forth in the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to process payment transactions that reasonably appear to the Credit Union to be fraudulent or erroneous. The Credit Union will attempt to withdraw the designated funds from your account for the payment on the same date you schedule the payment for and process your payment transaction within one (1) business day. It is your responsibility to schedule your payments in such a manner that your obligations will be paid on time. You should schedule your payment transaction for a date that is at least five (5) business days before the bill is due. You are responsible for any late fees or finance charges that may be imposed as a result of your failure to schedule a timely bill payment transaction.

g. Foreign Transactions. Purchases and cash advances made in foreign countries and foreign currencies will be billed to you in U.S. currency. Transactions processed outside of the United States will be charged a foreign transaction fee in an amount to be determined by the Credit Union, regardless of whether there is a currency conversion associated with the transaction. The conversion exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions to U.S. currency will be from a government mandated rate in effect for the applicable Central Processing Date (CPD), in each instance, plus or minus any adjustment determined by the Credit Union as a Visa issuer. A foreign transaction is any transaction that you complete or a merchant completes on your card outside of the U.S., Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands; this may include Internet transactions.

h. Illegal Use and Internet Gambling. You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of your Business Visa debit card are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your Business Visa debit card may only be used for legal transactions. Display of a payment card logo by an online merchant does not mean that Internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. WSECU has restricted all online gambling transactions with the Business Visa debit card.

3. Conditions of EFT Use. The use of your account and EFT services are subject to the following conditions:

a. Ownership of Cards. Any card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the Card, immediately according to instructions. The card may be repossessed at any time in our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your card or account to another person.

b. Honoring the Card. Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the card will be responsible for the failure or refusal to honor the card or any other device we supply to you. If a merchant agrees to give you a refund or adjustment, you agree to accept a credit to your account in lieu of a cash refund. You may not use your card or account for any transaction that is unlawful or illegal. We may decline to authorize any transaction that we believe may be unlawful or illegal.

c. Non-Visa Debit Transaction. WSECU enables non-Visa debit transaction processing and does not require that all such transactions be authenticated by a PIN. A non-Visa debit transaction may occur on your WSECU business debit card. Below are examples to distinguish between a Visa debit and non-Visa debit transaction:

- To initiate a Visa debit transaction at the point of sale, the cardholder signs a receipt, provides a card number (e.g., in e-commerce or mail, telephone order environments) or swipes the card through a point-of-sale terminal.
- To initiate a non-Visa debit transaction, the cardholder enters a PIN at the point-of-sale terminal or, for certain bill payment transactions, provides the account number for an e-commerce or mail/telephone order transaction after clearly indicating a preference to route it as a non-Visa transaction.

A non-Visa debit transaction will not provide the zero liability protection benefit, and if a Rewards program is present, a non-Visa debit transaction may not be an eligible Rewards transaction.

d. Security of Personal Identification Number (PIN). The ATM PIN and Telephone Banking PIN issued to you are for your security. The numbers are confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded on or with the card. You are responsible for safekeeping your PIN. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your PIN available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your PIN, that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. If you fail to maintain the security of these PINs and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your ATM and account services immediately. The ATM/PIN are unique to each individual card. The PIN may change with each ATM/debit card reissue.

e. Suspension of EFT Access or Service. If you are in breach of this Agreement, or any other loan or service agreement with the Credit Union, or we suspect fraudulent activity on your account, the Credit Union may, without prior notice, restrict access to your accounts or suspend your electronic services or access devices, including ATM or debit cards and online banking or mobile deposit services. Such restrictions may continue until you cure any breach condition or any fraud condition is resolved.

4. Member Liability. You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using your EFT services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use an EFT service, Card or PIN, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. Tell us at once if you believe your card and/or PIN has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic funds transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check, by immediately calling 800.562.0999 during business hours and 866.861.5416 after hours, or write to the following address:

OLYMPIA, WA 98507

5. Business Days. Our business days are Monday through Friday; holidays are not included.

6. Fees and Charges. There are certain charges for electronic fund transfer services as set forth in the Business Account Rate and Fee Schedule. From time to time the charges may be changed. We will notify you of any changes as required by law. If you use an ATM that is not operated by us, you may be charged an ATM surcharge by the ATM operator or an ATM network utilized for such transaction. The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction.

7. Right to Receive Documentation Transfers

a. Periodic Statements. Transfers and withdrawals transacted through an ATM, POS terminal, your Business Visa debit card, or the Telephone Banking or online banking system will be recorded on your periodic statement. We will send a periodic statement for each monthly cycle in which an electronic fund transfer has occurred; and shall send a periodic statement at least quarterly if no transfer has occurred.

b. Direct Deposits. If you have arranged to have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made by calling 800.562.0999. This does not apply to transactions occurring outside the United States.

c. Terminal Receipt. You will get a receipt at the time you make any transaction greater than $15.00 involving your account using an ATM, POS terminal, or your business debit card.

8. Account Information Disclosure. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:
   • As necessary to complete transfers.
   • To verify the existence of sufficient, available funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant.
   • To comply with government agency or court orders.
   • If you give us your written permission.

9. Credit Union Liability for Failure to Make Transfers. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable for instance:
   • If, through no fault of ours, you do not have sufficient available funds in your account to make the transfer, your account is inactive or the transfer would go over the credit limit on your line of credit.
   • If you used the wrong ATM PIN, Telephone Banking PIN or you used an ATM PIN or Telephone Banking PIN or card in an incorrect manner.
   • If the card has expired or is damaged and cannot be used.
   • If the ATM where you are making the transaction does not have enough cash.
   • If the ATM was not working properly and you knew about the problem when you started the transaction.
   • If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood or power failure) prevent the transaction.
   • If the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim.
   • If your account is frozen because of a delinquent loan.
   • If there are other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.
   • The ATM or POS terminal may retain your card in certain instances, in which event you may contact the Credit Union about its replacement.
   • If the error was caused by a system beyond the Credit Union’s control such as your internet service provider.
   • If you have not given the Credit Union complete, correct and current instructions so the Credit Union can make a transfer or bill payment.
   • If the accounts to which you request a bill payment transfer to be made have been closed or the vendor will not accept such payments.
   • If you have bill payment services, the Credit Union can only confirm the amount, the participating merchant and date of the bill payment transfer made by the Credit Union. For any other error or question you have involving the billing statement of the participating merchant, you must contact the merchant directly. The Credit Union is not responsible for investigating such errors.

10. Notices. The Credit Union reserves the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. The Credit Union will mail notice to you at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law. Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing the Credit Union account and any future changes to those regulations.
